OPENING PRAYER

(read together)

We call on your name in this time of worship, Almighty God, eager to know you more fully and serve you more faithfully. We have heard of your amazing promises given to our ancestors in faith. We seek your word for us in our day, for we want to grow strong in our faith as our ancestors did in theirs. As they gave you glory and praise, we come to do the same. As they passed on their faith to new generations, we seek to do the same, so that coming generations may be drawn to minister in your name. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

(read together)

Wise and powerful God, you have given us your light and truth to guide us through confusion, yet we have relied instead on human wisdom and have lost our way. You offer to share our burdens and give us your strength, yet we trust in our own efforts and find ourselves exhausted. Bring us back into your presence; overcome our separation from one another and from you. By your Word and Spirit, fill us with your gifts that equip us to meet life's demands, that we may be your people in the world and live in the confidence and joy of Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen.

SILENCE FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION AND CONFESSION

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

(read responsively)

Leader: This is the good news: God does not go back on the promises made so long ago. God does not reject us, God redeems us. God does not withhold love, God pours it into our barren lives.
People: Forgiven of our sins, filled with hope, living in relationship with God and one another - we are a new people. Thanks be to God. Amen.

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING

Psalm 22:23-31

AN AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

(read together)

We believe that our lives are held within the encircling love of God, who knows our names and recognizes our deepest needs.

We believe that Christ is the divine Child of the living God, and that his grace is like living waters that can never be exhausted.

We believe in the birthing, renewing, enabling Spirit of God who yearns over our welfare as a mother yearns for her child.

We believe that God is in the arid desert as well as in green pastures, and that hard times and disciplines are also loving gifts.

We believe that our journey has a purpose and a destination, and that our path leads to a human glory we cannot yet imagine.

We believe that in the church we are fellow pilgrims on the road, and that we are called to love one another as God loves us.

This is our faith and we are humbled to profess in Jesus the Christ. Amen
